

PARK GUIDELINES

1. Please don't feed wildlife in your county parks. Animals that are hand fed can become aggressive, steal food, and even bite visitors.
2. Alcoholic beverages are only allowed in designated areas with an approved application.
3. Radios must be kept at low volume.
4. Fires allowed in cooking grills only.
5. Removal or destruction of natural resources and wildlife prohibited.
6. Metal detectors are not allowed.
7. No swimming allowed in lakes, lagoons, ponds, or tidal creeks.
8. Pets must be kept on a leash (except in dog park), cleaned up after, and under control at all times.
9. Motorized vehicles permitted on designated roadways only.
10. Please stay on marked trails and paths. Potentially hazardous animals and plants are a part of nature and may be present.
11. Firearms, fireworks, remote controlled airplanes, and any dangerous projectiles are prohibited.
12. No bicycles, skates, rollerblades, or skateboards allowed on docks. Please walk bicycles on boardwalks and ramps.
13. Fishing allowed in tidal creeks with valid fishing license. Freshwater fishing is offered in some areas of the park.
14. All occupants of any canoe, kayak, or boat must wear a personal flotation device at all times while on any lake, lagoon, or pond.
15. Activities involving sales and solicitation require written approval from park management.
16. Park in designated areas only.
